

1. State Department of Education. <https://www.tn.gov/education.html> have information about the curriculum, standards, assessments, and other education-related information

ESSA state plan

2022 Educator Survey Results

Teachers

School Level - One file containing all schools (WARNING: Large)

District Level - One file containing all districts

State Level - Teacher Core Data

State Level - Teacher Module Data

2. National Curriculum Organizations. <https://tea.texas.gov/>

Educator report data

- a. Data Reporting Compliance
- b. District Reporting Schedule
- c. State Performance Plan
- d. Texas Records Exchange (TREx)
- e. Texas Student Data System

Educator Data

- f. Educator Reports and Data
- g. Highly Qualified Teacher Reports
- h. TPEIR Teacher Certification Report

Program Evaluations

- i. Charter Schools
- j. Middle School, High School, and College Preparation Initiatives
- k. Other Initiatives
- l. Out-of-School Learning Opportunities
- m. Reading, Math, Science, and Technology Initiatives
- n. Research Reports

School Data

- o. Charter School Reports
- p. Comprehensive Report on Texas Public Schools
- q. Discipline Data
- r. Campus and District Type Data Search

- s. General Information
- t. Snapshot
- u. Waivers Online Report

3. School District Websites. Williamson County

Essential Question: • How does reading help us build knowledge?

Student Understandings; Module Learning Goals; Module Knowledge Goals

4. Online Curriculum Marketplaces. offer a wide range of resources, including lesson plans, activities, assessments, and more. <https://k12cs.org/>